

The College

The Diocese of Madras of the Church of South India founded the C.S.I. Ewart Women's Christian College in 1997. C.S.I. Ewart Women's Christian College is nurtured by Christian values, the College aims to train young women particularly rural, to be serving, caring and sharing citizens of our country and the world at large.

The priority of the College is the education of poor, oppressed and less privileged women, especially village women, to provide them opportunities for a fuller life. The College is committed to the liberation of women and training them to meet all challenges of gender and other discrimination.

C.S.I Ewart Women's Christian College is an ISO Certified Institution providing 7 UG Courses and 1 PG Course that offer an impressive array of intellectual challenges for women students. Students prepare for leadership through experiential learning opportunities, an extensive career network and countless co-curricular, service and off-campus study activities.

Objectives of the Faculty Development Programme

Professional Development is important in Higher Education, due to constant changes and challenges in the expanding field of Education. Therefore, Teachers have to continuously update and equip themselves.

The Focus

1. To nurture the faculty to be more confident, caring leaders working with integrity, strong perseverance and with a sense of responsibility for themselves and commitment to the institution.
2. To provide a forum to discuss the needs of the institution, areas for improvement and advancement, as the institution works towards compliance with norms of the UGC and Government agencies.
3. To facilitate faculty to offer whole person education for the students to help them in various dimensions especially as counsellors apart from academic input.
